

New Settlers' English support classes at Mile End

By Kelvin Hurrell

Our Parish of Kidman Park Anglican Church conducts English classes for people for whom English is a second language. Anyone can attend, there is no charge for attending and students can attend for as long as they wish.

...There are doubtless many different languages in the world and none is without meaning. But if I do not know the meaning of the language, I will be a foreigner to the speaker and the speaker a foreigner to me... 1 Corinthians 14:10-11

There is no fixed syllabus or examinations because we want to help students with their individual needs. Some attend simply to improve their enjoyment of life whilst others want extra help to assist them pass formal courses such as the IELTS course.

..... he was to teach them the literature and language.... Daniel 1:4

The classes are conducted in an informal and friendly manner with the opportunity for students to meet and chat with people from other countries.

Classes are held on Monday afternoon commencing at 1.00 pm and last for 2 hours except for school and public holidays, at St James Church, 1B Falcon Ave Mile End.

... Paul said to the commander, "May I say something to you?" and he said "Do you know Greek? (replace with English): Acts 21:37...
